Jhoom Barabar Jhoom is a 2007 Indian Hindi musical romantic comedy film directed by Shaad Ali and produced by Aditya Chopra under Yash Raj Films. Cast: Rishi Kapoor, Shah Rukh Khan, Anushka Sharma, Seshana Bachchan, Rohan Kapoor. The famous musician Arjun Kapoor and his friends, due to financial problems, are forced to temporarily change their musical career towards show business. The story begins with the fact that in the town of Kashi (India), Argin, who dreams of becoming a popular singer, and his friend Raj decide that the musician is tired of pop songs and decided to make a pop comedy film with fights and meaningless dialogues. The film is interesting. There is no direct meaning in the film, but everyone sings so well. "William Turner" is a British film starring British actor Samuel Jackson. The film follows the life of an unknown painter, artist William Turner, who tried to make a living by painting Romantic portraits in the homes of local aristocrats. Stephen Wiltshire is a writer who has not given interviews to journalists and has not published his works for a long time. The newly published new novel did not attract the attention of literary critics and was published in one of the small provincial British publishing houses. Stephen is depressed. He thinks that his whole life will be the same. But by chance meeting with one of his clients, Yvonne Brown, Steven is introduced to a new experience and realizes that life has meaning.
