Features Key:

Role of a Lord: Become the leader of an army to battle against the enemy during a war, or a knowledgeable tactician while you explore a massive and complex dungeon. The ultimate personality of a Lord of Elden is up to you.
3D Models: Huge and colorful 3D models. Much more than the 2D models that you may have seen in the most recent RPGs, with artfully sculpted and designed appearances to provide even greater immersion.
Large Cast of Characters: Meet various varieties of characters from some of the most recognizable fictional characters from various genres such as fantasy, science-fiction, RPG, and so on.
Immersive RPG Atmosphere: Being an unparalleled RPG that uniquely combines features of both Japanese action RPGs and Western RPGs, we have taken a lot of care and invested a lot of time in creating a beautiful story that suits the RPG genre, and finally we've been able to bring you the exciting atmosphere of an action RPG with a unique world that is shaped by its own rules. With the current server capacity, we will be easing access to the new character creation system while maintaining both the fantasy RPG atmosphere and game play that have been the signature features of the game up to now.
Pure Action: System that features realistic actions with highly immersive special effects to provide an unparalleled action RPG. Some Japanese action games that came to our minds when working on the simulation of movement and physics are to be played as references.
Hero Prowess: Heroic appearance, comprising of not only realistic body parts but also fantastical powers such as teleportation, disintegration, magical flight, and powerful attacks with amazing potential. You can make your character rise to become an unexpected hero as the best heroes from various works of fiction.
Remarkable Heroes: Various heroes and exclusive heroes, who have not yet been announced. The complete heroes that we have lined up so far are individual characters developed by the game's staff in charge of the development.
Weapon Variety: Players can fully utilize all kinds of various weapons available to them, taking advantage of the various stances. The weapons have realistic properties, and their differences tend to be great, as is the case with any action game.
Immersive Boss Battles: The engaging original attacks of bosses

I'm trying to get the below data into a pivot table. I have tried several examples, but nothing seems to work. I've tried with a javascript example, and am trying something in VBA with ranges and the split function as described here: How to split a List into Pivot Table Column Headers I really don't have any idea how to proceed with this. I'd appreciate any help. A: Here is one way using two pivot tables and a bit of VBA. The trick is to use dictionary to hold the the values for the rows.
